Star 3/8/67

Warren Report 'Not Convincing' To Vatican Paper

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—A Vatican newspaper said today the Warren commission findings on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy are not convincing.

"Many questions were left without an answer," an editorial in the Vatican weekly Osservatore Della Domenica said.

The editorial, entitled "Uneasiness," surveyed the official government investigation and the current probe in New Orleans.

It said, "The man in the street, at the sight of so much smoke, is led to believe something is really burning. . . . The fact is that the Warren inquiry and the conclusions it reached at the time do not seem convincing."

The Vatican newspaper said "since the day of the tragedy, 15 persons believed involved in the murky affair have disappeared brusquely from the scene in circumstances that are, to say the least, abnormal."